

Accountability/Commitment to Accomplishment

District accountability committee

- At least three parents of students enrolled in the District schools who are not employees or related to employees of the district, two of whom shall be the chairs or designees from Elementary and MHS Accountability Committee.
- At least one teacher.
- At least one school administrator
- One person from the community who is involved in business
- President of the School Board and one additional Board of Education member.

A person may not serve in more than one of the required membership roles on the DAC. A person who is employed by the district or related to a district employee shall not be eligible to serve as a parent on the DAC. "Related" means the person's spouse, son, daughter, sister, brother, mother or father. If, however, the district makes a good faith effort and is unable to identify a sufficient number of parents that meet these criteria, a person may serve as a parent on the DAC and also be employed by the district or related to a district employee.

Members of the DAC may be appointed or elected. If the Board appoints persons to the DAC, it shall ensure, to the extent practicable, that:

- the parents appointed reflect the student populations significantly represented within the district;
- at least one of the parents is a parent of a student enrolled in a district charter school authorized by the Board, if one exists; and
- at least one of the persons appointed has a demonstrated knowledge of charter schools.

If the Board chooses to increase the number of persons on the DAC, it shall ensure that the number of parents elected or appointed exceeds the number of representatives from the group with the next highest representation.

Members of the DAC will serve a term of two years. The DAC shall select a parent representative to serve as chair or co-chair, who shall serve terms of one year. The DAC shall also establish a schedule of meetings and adopt general rules for its operation.

School accountability committees

- Each school accountability committee (SAC) shall consist of at least: Eight members consisting of the school principal or designee, one teacher elected buy vote of all licensed professionals who provide instruction or have an office at the school, three parents or legal guardians of students enrolled in the school who are elected by a vote of the parents and legal guardians of students enrolled in the school, one adult member designated by an organization of the parents, teachers, and students recognized by the school, and a person from the community who is involved in business and who is appointed by the principal., and one Board of Education member .

- Members shall serve two-year terms, except that the teacher and two parents/guardians receiving the highest number of votes in the election shall serve three-year terms

A person may not serve more than one of the required membership roles on the SAC. If, after making good-faith efforts, a principal or an organization of parents, teachers and students is unable to find a sufficient number of persons who are willing to serve on the SAC, the principal, with advice from the organization of parents, teachers and students, may establish an alternate membership plan for the SAC. Such alternate plan shall reflect the required representation stated above as much as practicable.

Members of the SAC may be appointed or elected. If the Board appoints members to any SAC, it shall ensure, to the extent practicable, that the persons appointed reflect the student populations significantly represented within the school. If persons are elected to serve on the SAC, the building principal shall encourage persons who reflect the student populations significantly represented within the school to seek election to the SAC.

If the Board chooses to increase the number of persons on any SAC, it shall ensure that the number of parents elected or appointed exceeds the number of representatives from the group with the next highest representation.
